It includes some of the most renowned cruising areas of the Pacific Northwest: Howe Sound, the Sunshine Coast, and two glorious days cruising Desolation Sound.

Daylight Cruising on the Pacific Bear

Small Group West Coast Cruising: Maximum 16 Guests Per Departure

Your 5 Day Itinerary

Day 1— After a comfortable transfer from Vancouver City Centre to the quaint seaside village of Horseshoe Bay on Howe Sound, the cruise weaves through the Queen Charlotte Channel and the Barfleur Passage, before reaching the Sunshine Coast. Overnight Sunshine Coast Resort, a delightful waterfront inn. A wholesome, locally sourced dinner this evening is served onboard.

Day 2— This day favours early risers, as the delicious aroma of breakfast beckons you back onboard. Today's cruise explores a glacier carved passage, the Agamemnon Channel, separating the mainland from Nelson Island. In the afternoon, enter Malaspina Strait and arrive at Grief Point and the Beach Gardens Resort. Guests enjoy a casual resort dinner and overnight framed by sweeping views of Vancouver Island.

Day 3 / 4— For two glorious days, guests will explore renowned Desolation Sound and the many little coastal towns and villages. Cruising between West Redonda Island and Cortez, we sweep through Teakerne Arm before entering Deer Passage and the Top of Cortez Island to Herriot Bay on Quadra Island. There, we'll spend two magnificent nights at an authentic First Nations' accommodation: the Cape Mudge Resort. Dinner at lodge / last night dinner on board.

Day 5— After breakfast at the lodge, our mini coach returns to Campbell River for ongoing adventures or a return to Vancouver. Please ask us about post cruise options from Campbell River including a full day Grizzly Bear tour!
